What Participants of the Transforming Lives Training say:

"For me this training was exceptional and truly transformational. My work with people lifted to a whole new level. My groups are much more connected in a real way and I am too. Nicola is highly skilled, she is a genius in this field." Marci Schimoff, Transformational Leader and Speaker

"I learned so much, this is a life and work changer for sure!" Ian Stratton, Counseling Intern

"Nicola is masterful and elegant, she gets to the core. I have seen her in action and the results are remarkable, both in her work with clients and groups. In the training she showed us in an experiential way to work with people from presence, connection and love and get to a far deeper level to help people and ourselves. I can now participate more powerfully in life for the greater good!" Sergio Baroni, Lic. Psychotherapist

"It is rare to find a teacher, leader and healer who truly walks the talk and practices the teachings and wisdom that they share with others. Nicola is one of these rare and invaluable teachers. My clients, groups and myself benefit greatly from the training. I am so glad I attended and I will continue!" Kaliea Hansen, Social Worker

"Training with Nicola Amadora for several years now has changed my life for the better. It has improved my way of being with clients and my ability to be of service immeasurably. I feel deeply fortunate to have found a teacher like her." David Solomon, Facilitator and Leader
